

Making shadow puppets to tell Indian stories.

Creative Development

Design and make a fabric hand or finger puppet. Learning basic sewing techniques.

Grouping toys from the past.

Historical, Geographical and Social Understanding

Drawing modern and puppets from the past.

Reading and writing non-fiction text about puppets and toys from the past.

English, Communication and Language

Looking at the different types of puppets and how they have changed over time.

We're learning all about puppets.

Making a toy museum and creating captions for it.

Problem Solving, Reasoning and Numeracy

Learning ball skills and other skills needed in team games.

Counting, addition, subtraction, shape and data handling activities.

Grouping and sorting materials and investigating their different properties.

Using a computer paint package to explore real and imaginary situations.

Physical Education

Scientific and Technological Understanding

Continuing to look at the seasons and the weather with outdoor learning.

Discussing the way exercise affects our body.

